

TAFT CODEMNEED BY SCANT PRAISE

Republicans of State, Nearly
One Hundred of Them, Ratify National Ticket.

GLOOMY MEETING IS HELD

SALT LAKE OFFICE SEEKERS
PLACED ON GRILL.

The chill salt breeze that cooled the fevered oratory of the eloquent ex-founders of Republican doctrine yesterday was not colder than the reception of the eulogies of William H. Taft by these speakers at the "ratification" meeting held at Saitair last evening under the direction of the Taft Republican club of Logan.

Scarcely a hundred people—men, women and children—including curious tourists and young people impatiently waiting for the orators to cease that the dancing might be resumed, were gathered in a sort of family group in one corner of the dancing pavilion when the ratifying began. There were not as many there when it was concluded.

An Anomalous Position.

The Taft Republican club of Logan is said to be an anti-machine organization. Its president, Willard Hansen, is a leader of the insurgent faction. For some purpose, however, the Taft club of Logan chose two of its three speakers from the machine dictators. They were Congressman Joseph Howell and United States Marshal William Spry, the anointed Republican candidate for governor. The other speaker was Dr. A. L. Condon of Ogden.

It was the oratory of the non-machine speaker that might have occasioned alarm had it not been that there was apparently no one at the meeting capable of alarm, enthusiasm or any other emotion. Perhaps the Taft club of Logan felt that it was appropriate the meeting should be presided over by Joseph Smith—of Logan.

The "Oliver Wendell Holmes of Utah" began his address by urging a unity of action. He abhorred the rupture in the party, and declared that a "house divided against itself must necessarily fall." Then he scored the machine politicians for assuming that none—or scarcely any—of the present state officers were from Salt Lake.

"I saw in a Salt Lake paper last week," he said, "that in spite of the fact that officeholders in Salt Lake lived and voted in Salt Lake, they were still residents of Salt Lake."

And Myton Applauds.

Whereupon Major H. P. Myton, candidate for state treasurer from Salt Lake county, burst forth into vigorous applause. When the major had subsided the doctor continued:

"Oh, no, my brother, you cannot disown the man who has lived with you, taken part in your political and social affairs, and helped you win elections. You may not want to elect him, but you cannot disown him. He is one of the fellow citizens, but think of the other fellow. The man who casts his lot with Salt Lake and has his residence in Salt Lake when he seeks to further his candidacy for office look to the 'old folks at home.'"

Major Myton evidently sought this applause was premature, and no one applauded this section of the speech.

The doctor continued with a little praise for Taft and a little for the United States marshal, the candidate for governor, who, he predicted with an Oliver Wendell Holmes decision, would be too spry for his enemies.

There was somewhat of a relief to the machine men when the doctor introduced as "one whom we all know." "One whom we all know" also praised the Taft club of Logan, and urged a spirit of unification—this seemed to be on each speaker's program. He characterized Taft as the right-hand man and confidante of that royal and he really emphasized royal—friend of the people, that intrepid champion of truth, Theodore Roosevelt.

Congressman Howell said the Democratic party was the party of broken pledges; the Republican party the party of the people. He blamed the Democratic party for the business depression and industrial ruin of 1893. When he referred to Bryan an aged auditor arose and insisted that the Democratic candidate be referred to as "Colonel" Bryan. The congressman assented to the demand. He closed with the declaration that Sherman was known to him personally as a man of presidential timber. He was the only speaker who mentioned the Republican vice presidential candidate.

"Even in Salt Lake County."

The "next governor of Utah" was then introduced. The "next governor" made a hit from the start, when it was apparent that he had no manuscript, and it became apparent that what he had to say would be a "recitation," not a "speech." He made a bigger hit by making it brief. He merely urged the organization of Taft clubs throughout the state, declared that there was never a greater unity among the Republicans of the state than at present, and prophesied that Taft and the Republican ticket would carry the state by more than 20,000.

"There is a spirit of victory among the Republicans," he said, "in every county of the state, not even excepting our own county of Salt Lake."

NEW YORK SAFE THIS YEAR

FEDERATION OF LABOR SHOW-ING GREAT ACTIVITY.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—The Democratic congressional situation was the subject matter of an extended conference today between National Chairman Mack and Congressman James Lloyd, after which it became known that the Democratic congressional committee would not only cooperate with the campaign committee wherever possible, but would render any financial aid it could. The two committees have worked heretofore harmoniously as separate organizations.

Strong Bryan Sentiment.

State Senator Timothy Sullivan of New York, who is returning from a visit to Seattle, where he attended a convention of the Eagles, called on Chairman Mack today.

"Somewhere I have been I found the sentiment strong for Bryan," said Senator Sullivan. New York will be for Bryan and we will elect a Democratic ticket from the governor down. I do not know whom the Democrats will nominate for governor, but I hope it will be Lieutenant Governor Chandler. I heard reports out west that Tammany hall would not be for Bryan. That is not so. The hall is always regular for first in the sector of its strength. Were our bitter enemy nominated on the Democratic ticket the hall would work harder than ever to overthrow him. ## Labor Element Active.

A delegation of local members of the American Federation of Labor called on Chairman Mack today and requested that the national committee select a member of the Federation of Labor as chairman of the advisory committee, and Chairman Lloyd of the congressional committee have been requested to be present and give their advice.

Ephraim, Aug. 18.—The Republican central committee met in this city Saturday afternoon at the office of Attorney Ephraim Hansen to decide on a location and date for the county convention. Manti and Gunnison competed for it, Manti winning out with a majority of one vote. It was decided to hold it at the court house at Manti at 10 a. m. on Sept. 5.

The committee also decided upon the appointment of representatives to attend the county convention. One delegate for each twenty-five votes cast for Congressman Howell at the last election was named.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. John Olson of Chester were held at Mount Zion cemetery yesterday afternoon. Interment was in the Park cemetery.

FRANCHISE IS GRANTED.

Outside Parties Will Establish a
Water System for Kaysville.

(Special to The Herald.)

Kaysville, Aug. 18.—The project of establishing a waterworks system for Kaysville, which has been before the city council for the past two years, has finally reached the stage where a franchise has been granted to outside parties for the purpose of supplying water for culinary and other purposes. The city council has all along hoped that the municipal finances would be sufficient for the installation of a waterworks system under the control of the city, but the recent purchase of the electric light system has somewhat hampered the council, and when application was made for the waterworks to be put in by outside capital, the council voted unanimously to grant the franchise.

Heber J. Steiner of Salt Lake City, who, it is understood, represents eastern capitalists, is the man to whom the franchise was granted by the council last night. Mr. Steiner has recently financed some other projects for Kaysville, and he claims to have $200,000 available to supply water for the various towns of Davis county. By the terms of the franchise granted last night Mr. Steiner has thirty days in which to file his acceptance and begin work, and it is stipulated that the work must be prosecuted continuously and with reasonable dispatch until the system is completed. The mains must be laid to the center of town within six years from Sept. 1 next. The franchise provides for a maximum charge of 10 cents per 1,000 gallons for water used for culinary purposes, and 8 cents per 1,000 gallons for irrigation water. Mr. Steiner and his associates will begin at once at installing the system, and he says that if 75 families will contract to connect with his mains he will proceed to install the system. There is very little doubt but what the necessary number can be secured.

GLASMAN'S OUT OF THE WET

Former Mayor Yields to Sentiment and Now Favors
Waterworks Purchase.

The Chamber of Commerce last evening endorsed the purchase of the waterworks system by the municipality and recommended that the bonds be voted.

The adoption of the resolution followed a lengthy debate on the subject of municipal ownership of the waterworks. The main point of contention was with regard to the actual amount of water really owned by the water company. It was asserted that most of its supply was leased from parties having prior rights to it. The final report of the committee appointed to investigate the question dealt largely with this point.

Mayor Brewer was present at the meeting and spoke in favor of the purchase. He met every argument made by the opposition and scored his strongest point with the statement that some years ago a house-to-house canvass of the city brought out the fact that the water company's net earnings were $55,000 a year.

William Glasman furnished the sensation of the evening by amending the original motion, which provided for the endorsement of the action of the council, by adding the portion recommending the voting of the bonds. Heretofore Glasman, through his papers, has opposed the bond issue. He said that, when convinced that the earnings of the system were so great, he could not do otherwise than support it.

MACK IN BAD SHAPE.

Narrowly Escaped Death From Stabs
Received in Saloon Fight.

Glen Mack, who was stabbed in a fight with C. O. Isakson Monday evening, is reported to be in a critical condition. It is stated that Mack was more seriously injured than was at first believed. The thrust of the knife was in the neck and narrowly missed the jugular vein. Another inflicted a gash on the cheek bone, and a third cut in the back and several other wounds in the region of the heart. One of the latter was quite deep and dangerous.

Dr. G. W. Baker, who dressed Mack's injuries, stated that he was slowly improving last night and his recovery was expected.

Mack is said to have made the statement that he would not appear against Isakson, as he himself was to blame for the affair.

Mrs. Dibble Seeks Divorce.

Alleging desertion, non-support and cruel treatment, Mrs. Chloé E. Dibble brought an action in the district court yesterday for a divorce from her husband, Neil P. Dibble, to whom she was married more than three years ago. Mrs. Dibble alleges that her husband deserted her May 15 of this year, and since that with failing to provide the necessary cost of life for herself and child. She further alleges that he has publicly insulted her by calling her vile names, and avers that he has written her insulting letters. ## Cloyd Writes a Letter.

D. E. Cloyd, the discharged principal of the Ogden high school, who engaged in a fist fight with Superintendent William Alldate Monday, yesterday published a long signed statement in a local paper, in which he makes a number of accusations against the superintendent. Mr. Cloyd intimates that the whole row was because he did not go in with a certain architect of the city in connection with the proposed plans for a new high school building. He accuses Mr. Allison of being a snob and making a number of statements that may lead to a further discussion of the matter.

Mexican With a Large Knife.

Carl Anderson caused the arrest yesterday of Mike Honorat, a Mexican, whom he accuses of having made an attempt to attack him with a large knife. Anderson claimed that Honorat lost and became angered. When the police at the police station the Mexican had a jack knife with the large blade open. Anderson said the knife that Honorat pulled on him was larger, but no other weapon could be found.

Death of Mrs. Joseph Hadley.

A man who was seen loitering about the place at the time the family went away was arrested.

Comfort for the Fat in Hot Weather.

Don't simply shed all your clothing. That is not the secret. It isn't your textile coverings that make life so wretched for you, my stout friends, but the fleshy covering—the fat.

You can be comfortable, though fat, in the hot weather, by reducing the fat with a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime of the following: 1/2 ounce Marmosa, 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 2 1/2 ounces Srup Simplex. This harmless home mixture that any druggist will put up for a small sum, but it is so successful in removing the fat that a little while you should be losing a half to a pound of fat a day. You will soon catch up with comfort at that rate, no matter how hot it gets. Alluring, isn't it? And when you realize that this inexpensive, sane method takes the fat off and gives you a trim, lithe figure, without causing wrinkles or interfering with one's diet—it becomes more than alluring—it's fascinating. Fat folks say so.

The Healthy Summer Drink

Dr. Hyatt and other leading physicians will tell you that during the hot weather the healthiest and most invigorating drink is iced tea. Not only is iced tea healthful and cooling, but it is also delicious and stimulates the brain for more active work. But get good tea; poor tea would spoil all the pleasure. There is none better than

HAINES CASE DISMISSED.—Edward Haines, Twenty-fifth street second-hand dealer arrested some days ago on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, has been discharged by the city court and the case against him dismissed.

SCHUYLER DAMAGE SUIT.—The evidence for the plaintiff in the $50,000 damage suit of Mary R. Schuyler et al. against the Southern Pacific Railroad company was all submitted to the jury yesterday. The jury, after deliberating for a day, returned a verdict for the railroad attorney moved for a non-suit and was still arguing his point when court adjourned for the day.

SOLD LIQUOR AFTER HOURS.—Police Officer John Conney reported to police headquarters yesterday that liquor had been sold after 1 o'clock in the morning, the stipulated closing time for all saloons in the city, at a saloon on Lincoln avenue. It is expected that a complaint will be sworn out against the offending place.

SCARLET FEVER AT SCHOOL.—Superintendent H. H. Thomas of the state industrial school announced yesterday that the epidemic of scarlet fever at the school was well under control and that there were no additional cases, all being confined to one ward in the institution. The condition of Robert Turner of Ogden is so critical that officials at the school despair of his life.
